Walker-Smith

The Star has received the following announcement:

"Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Smith announce the marriage of their daughter Edna Ethel, to Mr. John Elliott Walker, Saturday evening, September the sixteenth, nineteen hundred and sixteen, Ocala, Florida.

"At home after September the thirtieth, Sarasota, Florida."

The marriage of Miss Smith to Mr. Walker took place at the Methodist parsonage Saturday night. Beside the officiating clergyman, Rev. J. M. Gross, and the high contracting parties, only a few close relatives and friends were present. The happy young couple left on the early morning train for Sarasota, where they will make their home.

The bride is a very pretty girl, brought up in this city and a favorite with all who know her. About two years ago, she went to Sarasota, to make her home there with her sister, Mrs. Mustin, and take a position as stenographer with a leading business firm. During her stay in Sarasota, she met Mr. Walker, and courtship and marriage followed. "Miss Edna" came home a few weeks ago to prepare for the wedding that took place Saturday.

Mr. Walker is an active business man of the hustling city of Sarasota. The Star leads their Ocala friends in best wishes for him and his charming bride.

Mr. Walker is formerly from Shenandoah, Va., but has been in Sarasota for the past year and a half. He is a civil engineer.

Mrs. Pelot and daughter, Miss Carrie, leave tonight for Tallahassee, to visit Mrs. Pelot's son, Marion Pelot, an ex-Ocala boy, who now holds a responsible office in one of the state departments.

Miss Collie Clark leaves tomorrow for Selma, Ala., in one of the schools of which city she will teach this fall and winter.

Mrs. Allie Van Juhan Davis, who will teach one of the departments of the high school this term, is making her home with Mrs. A. M. Perry.

Mrs. B. A. Weathers and daughter, Miss Janet, and son, Mr. Paul Weathers, will leave this afternoon for Jacksonville, where tomorrow Mrs. Weathers and Paul will take the steamer for New York. Mr. Weathers is on his way to Harvard, for the second and last year of his business course, while Mrs. Weathers will visit friends in the north for a month or two. Miss Janet Weathers will go to Newnan, Ga., for a visit with Miss Frances Arnold.

Mr. E. L. Bridges and family of Atlanta, will arrive in Ocala about the first of October and occupy the residence of Mr. E. P. Rentz. Mr. Bridges is at the head of the Alkahest Lyceum Bureau.

Mrs. O. A. Taylor left Sunday for Lake City, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Carl C. Smith. Accompanied by her three pretty daughters, Misses Marjorie, Donnie and Sybil, Mrs. Taylor came to Ocala some three years ago, and has made many friends during her residence here. All her daughters are now happily married, and Mrs. Taylor expects to put in some months visiting them before returning to her to her former home at Live Oak.

Mrs. John M. Graham and little daughter have returned from a visit to relatives in Jacksonville. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Graham's sister, Miss Kate Hull, who will be the guest of Mrs. Graham for some weeks.

Mrs. Miles M. Landers, Mrs. Jessie A. Rowe of this city, and Mrs. Wallace E. Johnson Sr., of Montbrook, were guests of Mrs. Wallace E. Johnson Jr., at Reddick Sunday, attending the wedding of Miss Marjorie Taylor and Mr. Leander M. Green.

Mr. James Leslie of Panosoffkee, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. G. B. Weihe for a week, returned home today having spent a most enjoyable visit in Ocala.

Miss Helen Veal of Leroy was the week-end guest of Miss Katie Mae Eagleton.

Miss Emma Perry, who has been the guest of relatives in Jacksonville for some weeks, is expected home in a day or so.

Miss Dorothy Schriber leaves tonight for Tallahassee where she will attend the Florida Women's College for the ensuing term.

Miss Katie Mae Eagleton leaves tonight to enter the Florida College for Women at Tallahassee for the term of 1916-17.

Miss Beulah Hall is here for a visit to Mrs. R. S. Hall.

Miss Willie Proctor, of Eureka, was the Sunday guest of her relatives in this city, and with them visited Silver Springs.

Mr. John M. Martin and daughter, Miss Sara Pearl, returned Sunday from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. John F.

Williamson in DeLand, and today Miss Martin leaves for Atlanta to resume her studies at Agnes Scott College. During her stay in Ocala Miss Martin has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Long.

Green-Taylor

Miss Marjorie Madia Taylor, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar A. Taylor, and Mr. Leander Milford Green, were quietly married Sunday noon at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Wallace E. Johnson Jr., at Reddick. Mrs. Mary E. Bogie performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by relatives and a very few intimate friends.

The rooms were simply tho tastefully decorated with roses and other cut flowers.

The bride, an unusually attractive young lady, was charming in a traveling suit of king's blue taffeta with accessories to match.

The young couple were attended by Miss Ella Bogie and Mr. Glenn Johnson.

A delicious luncheon was served immediately after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Green left shortly after amidst a shower of rice and good wishes, over the Atlantic Coast Line for Jacksonville and Pablo Beach, where they will spend a few days before going to their future home in Live Oak.

Numerous telegrams of congratulation were received, and there were many pretty and useful presents sent by friends to the bride.

The bride has made her home in Ocala for the past four years, coming here from Lake City, and has a wide circle of friends who will wish her every happiness in her married life. Mr. Green is a valuable attaché of the Atlantic Coast Line at Live Oak, and has a host of friends who will extend congratulations.

Mrs. Frederick Hocker and little son, Clifton, returned Saturday from Elizabethtown, Ky., where they spent the summer with relatives. Mrs. Hocker's grandmother, Mrs. Granville Watkins, accompanied them for a visit to Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meffert of Lowell were in the city Sunday, for a visit to Mr. Meffert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Meffert.

Mrs. Mabry Summer and little daughter, Evelyn, left Saturday for a week's visit to relatives in Dade City and Tampa.

Mrs. Maude Horne and son, Mr. Norman Horne, are expected home from their summer vacation tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cullen and children are home from a very pleasant visit to Daytona Beach, having an easy trip over Saturday in Frank Morrison's car. Miss Miriam Pasture, who will teach one of the high school departments, is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Cullen.

This evening from 7 to 10 o'clock the Affleck Millinery Parlor will entertain its friends and patrons at its annual fall opening and showing of the latest and most up-to-date styles in millinery. The spacious parlor at the firm's new location in the Ocala House Block has been tastefully arranged for the occasion and all who attend will receive a hearty welcome.

MOVING PICTURE FEATURES

On tomorrow and Wednesday movies of the Second Florida regiment in camp at Black Point will be shown at the Temple. Company A, from Ocala, is shown very prominently in the pictures. The friends and relatives of the Company A boys will want to see these pictures, which will be run in addition to the Temple's regular program.

"The Price of Power," the Triangle feature at the Temple Saturday, was good. The story was unusual. The fight scene was unusually well handled. Orrin Johnson did some good work as "Daffy" Smith.

Today Louise Huff will be seen here as a Famous Players star in "The Reward of Patience," a story of a pretty Quaker girl. Miss Huff is from Gainesville, and has many friends in Ocala. She is steadily climbing in the theatrical world. Lotie Pickford, sister of Mary, is in the cast with Miss Huff.

Tomorrow Carlyle Blackwell and Ethel Clayton will be seen here in "A Woman's Way."

NOTICE

To Our Friends and Customers:

Owing to the big advance on flour and other raw material used in our line, we are compelled to raise the price on bread and other bakery goods. We dislike very much to do this but as you know flour and other materials have almost doubled in price, you can readily understand our reason for raising prices.

We are compelled to do so and after Sept. 16, 1916, our price for small loaves will be 6c., butternut and other 10c. loaves, 12c.; Pullman bread 18c., all rolls 12c. per dozen, cookies 12c. per dozen, doughnuts, 12c. per dozen, etc.

Very truly yours,
